Overview

A Surrender approval application is a Controlled Activity Approval surrendered under s108 of the Water Management Act 2000.

A Controlled Activity Approval cannot be surrendered where works have commenced and not yet completed.

A Controlled Activity Approval surrender due to works not commencing must occur before the release of securities for works not commencing. There are no additional fees associated with this application.

This document outlines the steps required to create and lodge Surrender application.

Prerequisites:

Before you begin, ensure you have the following details handy for entry into the first two screens:

- 1. The CAA number of the application to be surrendered, which must be a CAA that has been approved or expired. An invalid number will display the following error: The CAA number provided above, either is not valid or does not match the criteria for surrender. Please enter a valid CAA reference number.
- 2. The Expiry date of the original CAA Approval application
- 3. The original email address that was used in the CAA Approval application.

The above details can be found in the Case Details tab of the relevant CAA Approval application in Completed work.
